

Guide to Civil Society in Namibia Third Edition

The Namibia Institute for Democracy (NID) in collaboration with the Hans Seidel Foundation (HSF) will be publishing the

Guide to Civil Society in Namibia 3rd Edition

The Guide is compiled to provide an overview of the mandate and activities of Civil Society Organisations (CSOs) in Namibia, together with their contact details and the sectors in which they are active. The Guide will serve as a reference tool to local and international development institutions and NGOs requiring information on the activities of civil society and their specific programmes in Namibia.

NID hereby invites all CSOs i.e. community based organisations, faith based organisations, Non-Governmental Organisations, unions, media outlets, community radios, trusts and foundations operating in Namibia to be featured in the Guide. The costs for appearance are covered. This publication will be provided free of charge to all interested parties.

Please provide us with all your details for inclusion in the 3rd Edition. Kindly request the questionnaire via email from the NID Project Coordinator, Rejoice Marowa at nidteam2018@gmail.com

CLOSING DATE for submission of information is 14 September 2018

House of Democracy (HoD), 70 – 72 Frans Indongo Street, Windhoek West, Windhoek, Namibia